

Mr. Ghiselin moved to refer said bill to the consideration of the next General Assembly.

Mr. Randall moved a call of the House.

In the absence of the doorkeeper the House proceeded with the ordinary business.

The House took up for consideration the bill entitled, an act regulating fishing on the Potomac river during certain months, and concerning obstructions to fishing on said river;

Mr. Long moved to refer the bill to the consideration of the next General Assembly;

Resolved in the affirmative.

The doorkeeper having returned reported, that in obedience to order, he had notified the absent members that their attendance in the House was required.

The question was then put on Mr. Ghiselin's motion, to refer said bill to the consideration of the next General Assembly, and Determined in the negative.
